Yesterdays.

A hundred of them filled the joy and wonder that a thousand tomorrows may never bring.

Soft murmurs,

Warm fire light,

Gentle, musical strings.

The events of yesterday take their finale between the pages of this book.

Such a little thing to hold the accomplishments of men.

Such an important thing to hold the Key to memories.

Thank You

The Senior Class of '72 would like to thank two people who have given us a lot of time and effort in the past. The football and basketball home games would have been unbearable without your guidance and assistance. All we can say is . . .

Thanks Alot

DEDICATION

We Dedicate the 1972 Eagle

To a woman who has enough patience, wisdom, and understanding to compensate for the entire staff's mistakes and heartaches. When our minds were blank, she had ideas; when we were through with our work, she was always around with new and better jobs; when we were ready to quit, she gave us the inspiration to keep going. Because of these and many other qualities, we, the Senior yearbook staff dedicate the 1972 EAGLE to

Mrs. Welch

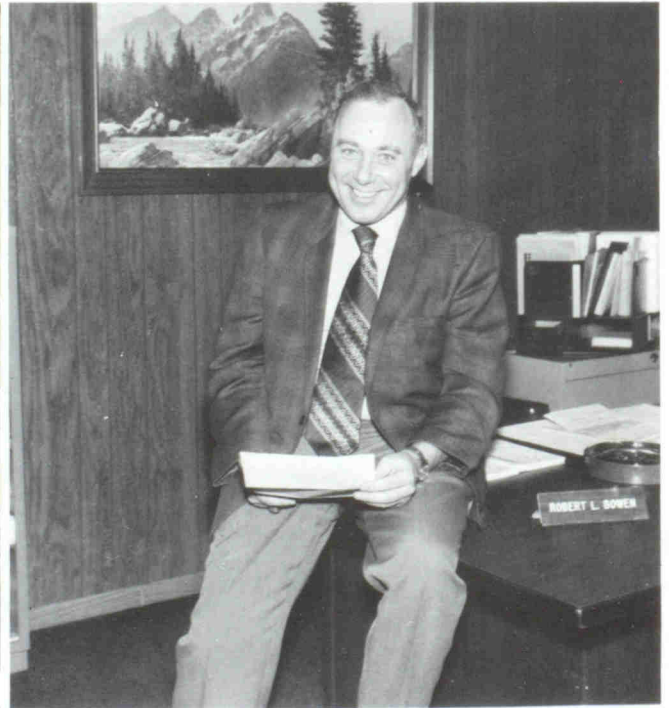

Board of Education

Sitting from left to right: Marjorie Huisinga, Secretary; Allison Perring, President; Lloyd Crichton. Standing from left to right: Robert Moberly, Don Reynolds, Larry Baker, Franklin Kingston.

Mr. Haynes' sidekicks
Esther and Terri

Mr. Haynes

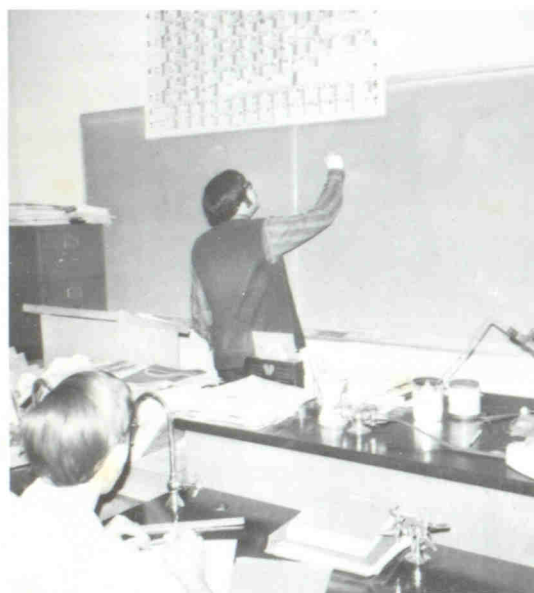

Mr. Jim Haynes, our principal, became our fearless leader and teacher this year. He taught American Problems. The first semester the course consisted of different individual class members teaching on certain chapters under the supervision of Mr. Haynes. Then second semester, the American Problems class struggled through the U.S. Constitution. Mr. Haynes is also student council sponsor.

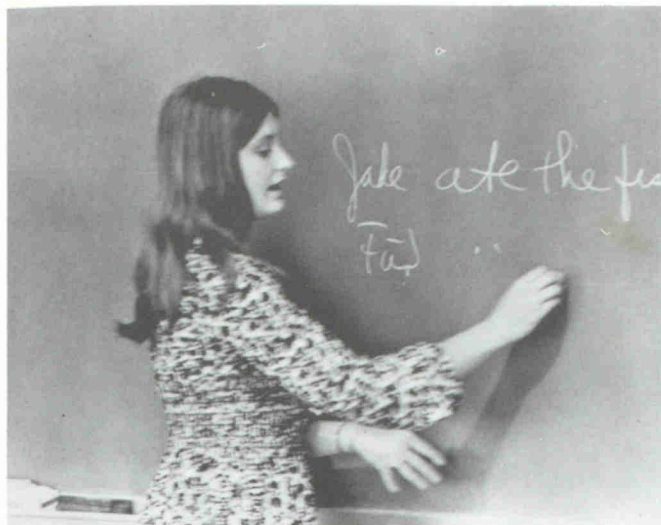

Mr. Blazier

Mr. Phil Blazier taught Elementary Math, Algebra II, Advanced Math, and Physics. Each class was intelligently taught and intelligently suffered through. The physics class worked to build a spaceship and to present a Science Fair at the end of the year. He was junior class sponsor and director of the senior class play.

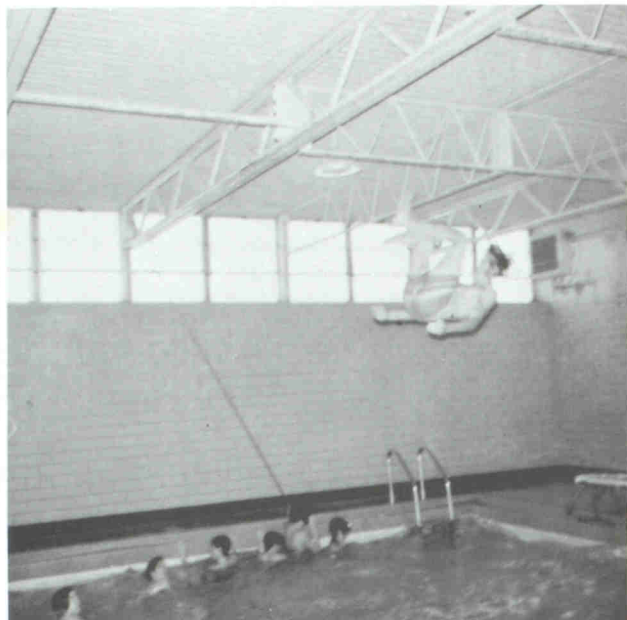

Miss Borys

Miss Cynthia Borys taught her first year at Deland-Weldon this year with French I, II, III, and English IV. She was the sponsor of AFS, urging the club to try its best to make money and to make "Toughy" feel at home. Miss Borys was also the co-director of the Junior Class Play.

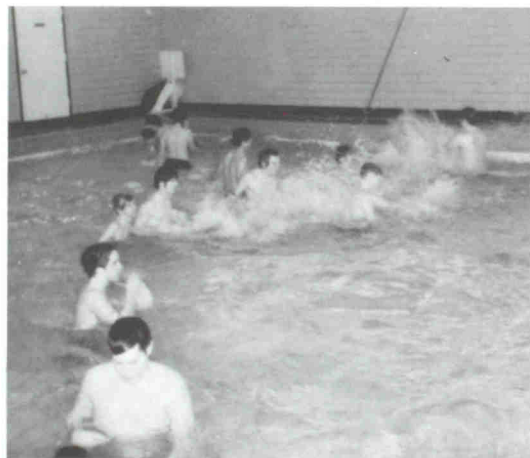

Smiley

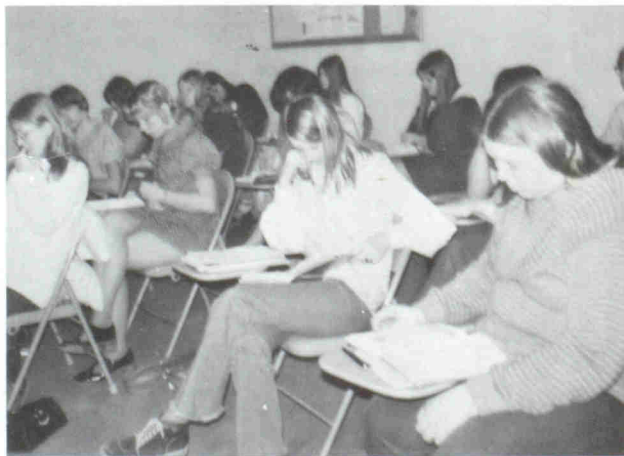

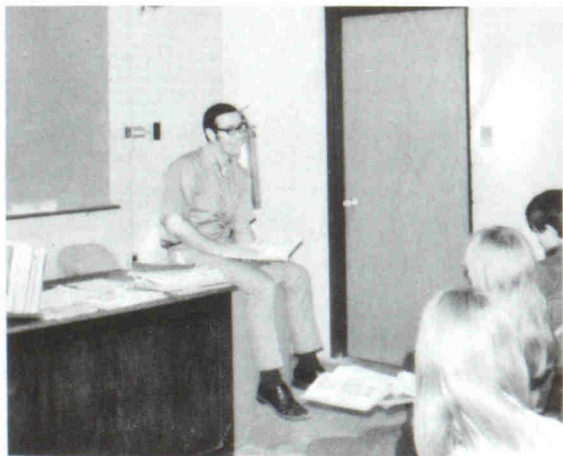

He flies through the air with the greatest of ease

Mr. Dobbs

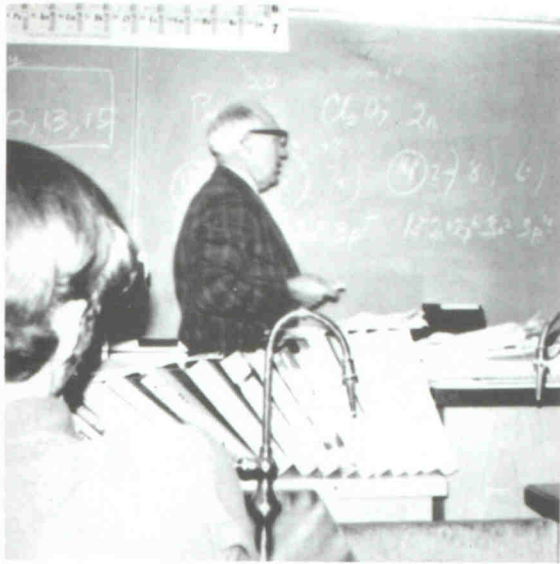

Mr. Clifford Dobbs was our very courageous Driver's Education teacher, helping the sophomores understand the fundamentals of safe driving. He also led our football team through victories and losses. This year, for the first time, Mr. Dobbs was appointed assistant basketball coach. He is an advisor of the sophomore class.

Catch that fish!

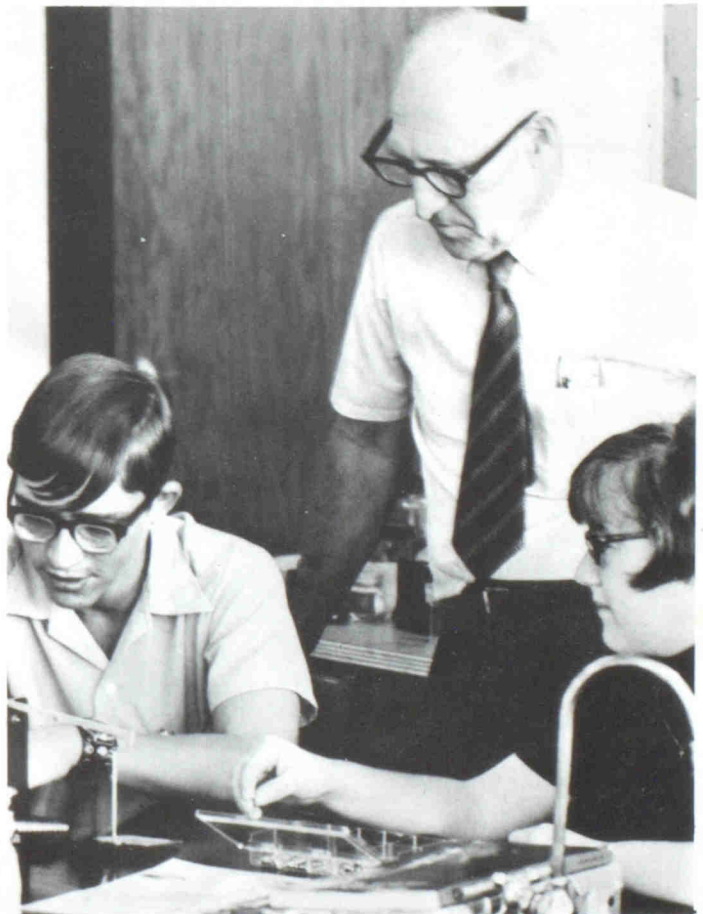

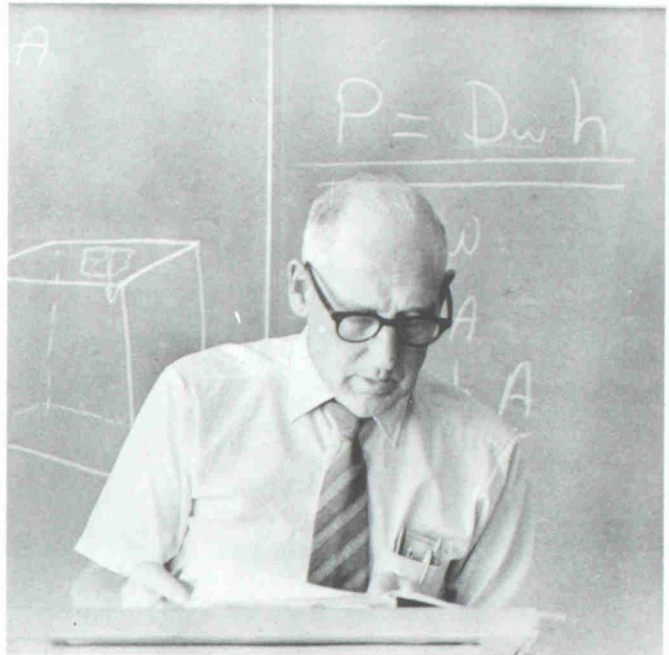

VERMILLION BOWL AND GRILL
McFEETER'S INC.

Mr. Edman

Mr. George Edman was kept busy this year by teaching I.P.S. and Chemistry on the high school level. He taught the basic and advanced principles of natural science, doing experiments and drawing conclusions. Mr. Edman is also the junior class and the National Honor Society sponsor.

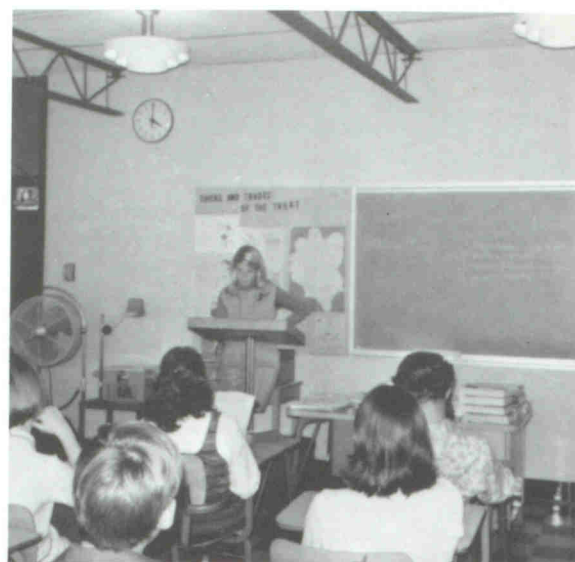

Smile! You're on candid camera!

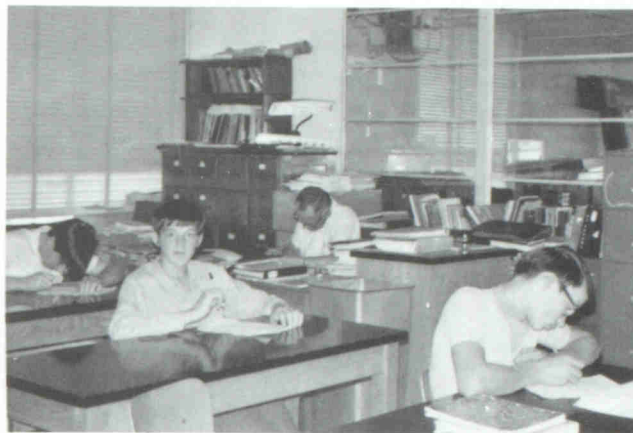

Mrs. Elder

Mrs. Teri Elder had a full load this year teaching students literature, grammar, and composition. She had one class of English I and two of English II. She also had both junior and senior college prep English courses. Mrs. Elder was one of the co-directors for the junior class play.

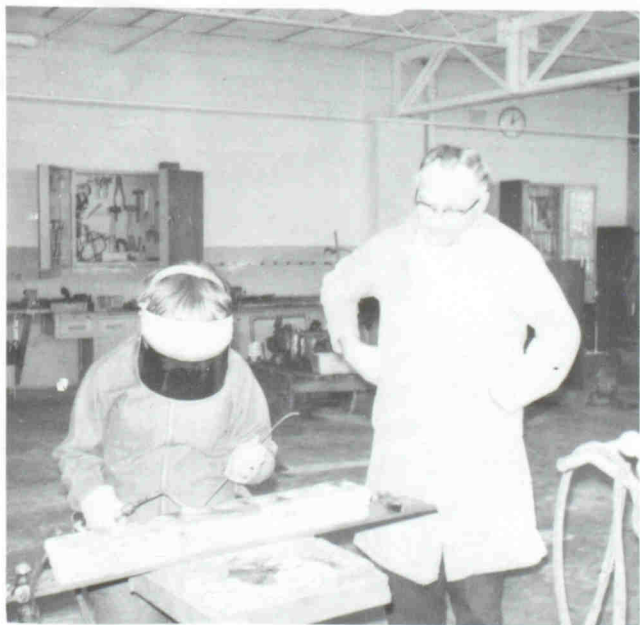

All right kids, we'll try it once more!

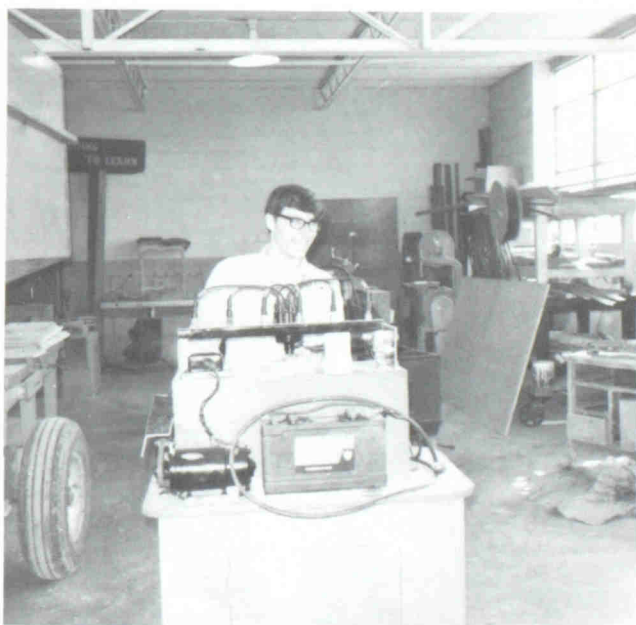

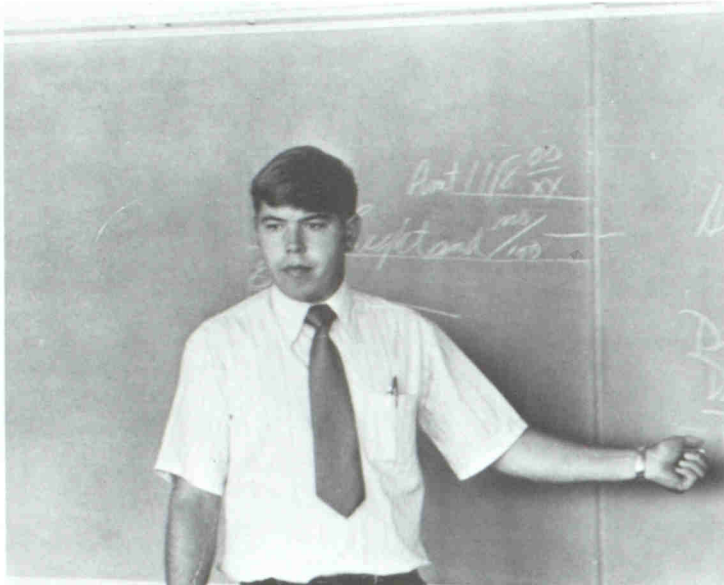

Mr. Gregory

Mr. Lawrence Gregory taught all of our agriculture classes. This year was marked a first for the agriculture department. Both boys and girls were offered ag classes. They enjoyed field trips to different places of interest. Mr. Gregory is also the freshmen class and the F.F.A. sponsor.

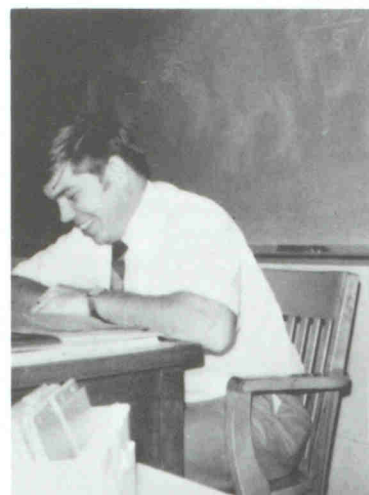

I can't stand anyone looking over me!

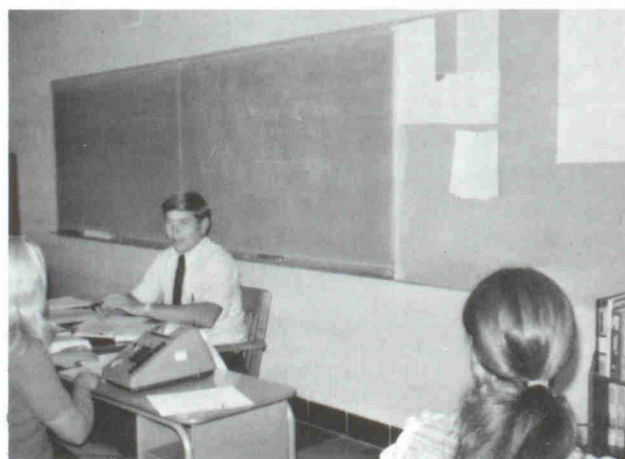

Learn this or else!

This lesson is funnier than I thought.

Mr. Heavilin

Mr. Larry Heavilin taught bookkeeping, recordkeeping, MBA, and office practice this year. Mr. Heavilin not only taught the students knowledge of office work and machine operating, but also taught the practicality of math and useful figuring. Each class was useful - some helping the kids to find jobs, others for further references in life. He was also the much-appreciated senior class sponsor.

It's easy to teach beauties!

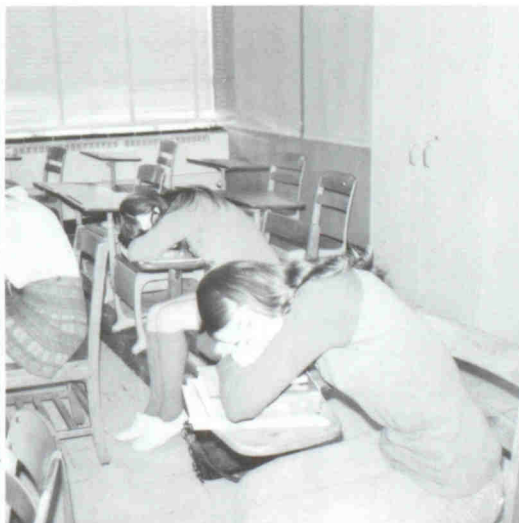

Why not relax and enjoy it!

Mrs. Huehner

Besides teaching the regular sociology, Afro-Asian geography, U.S. history, and world history, Mrs. Sheila Huehner had two independent studies under her supervision. She was helped the last nine weeks by a student teacher from I.S.U. Mrs. Huehner is also newspaper sponsor.

Did you catch all that?

Nap time, all heads down.

Mrs. Falconer

Mrs. Margery Falconer not only helped students apply for colleges as guidance counselor, but she also taught literature and grammar in English I and II as well. She was assistant senior class sponsor.

A teacher's work is never done

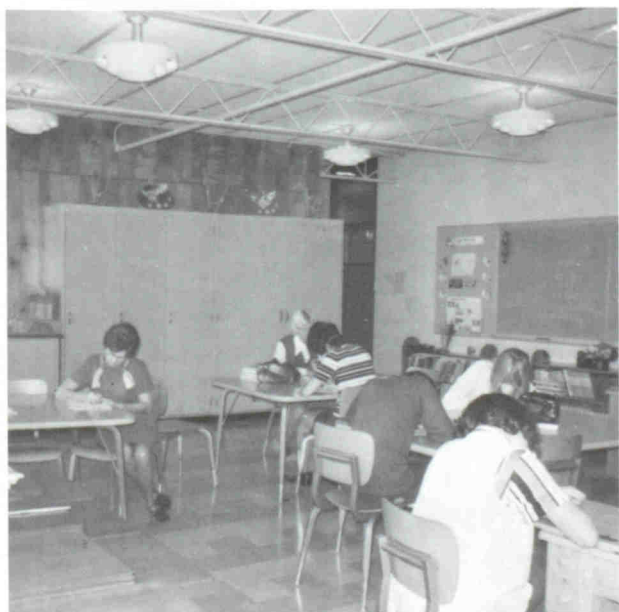

Reach for the sky!

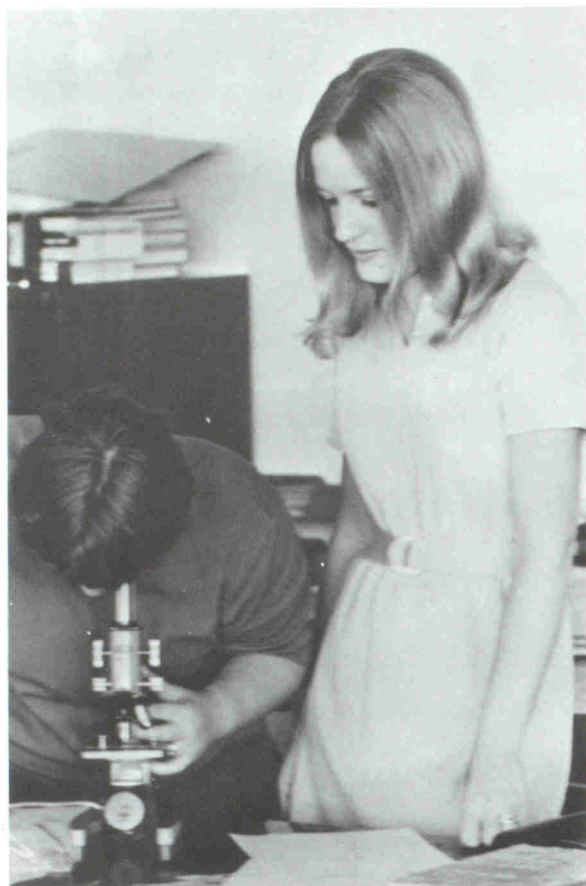

Mrs. Leischner

Mrs. Kay Leischner taught Home Economics I and II. The Home Ec. girls were taught to cook and sew. The Family Living classes discussed, with much help from Mrs. Leischner, all aspects of life out on your own, including money-making and marriage. This year the FHA, sponsored by Mrs. Leischner, traveled to Chicago for the annual shopping trip.

Peace, Baby, Peace

See anything?

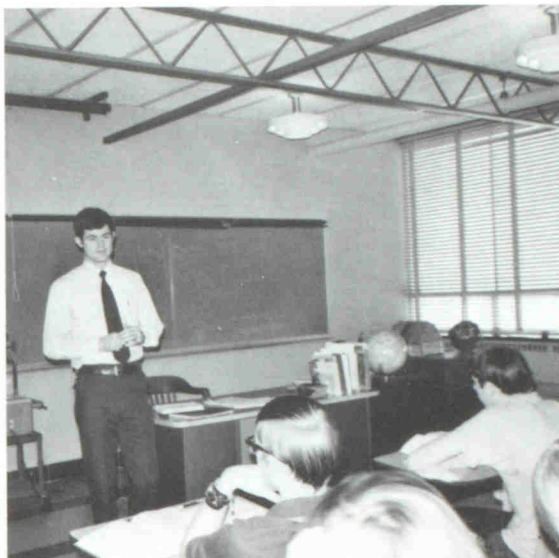

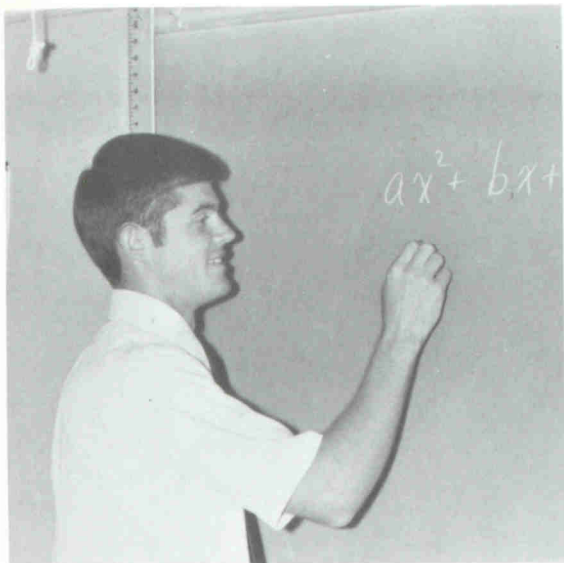

Mrs. Seal

Mrs. Jeanne Seal taught Biology I and II this year. These classes did everything from dissecting a cat to building a human dummy for study purposes. She also instructed Art I and II leading the students and their talents through drawing, ceramics, and paper mache. Mrs. Seal was the vigorous advisor for the cheerleaders, also.

SMITH AND SMITH
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Mr. Sullender

Mr. Robert Sullender taught Geometry and Algebra I, which concerned the basic fundamentals of math. Working hard to teach what was mainly freshmen and sophomores, Mr. Sullender never quit. He also instructed Boy's P.E. II and III, trying to shape up some of the boys.

Swim, girls, Swim!

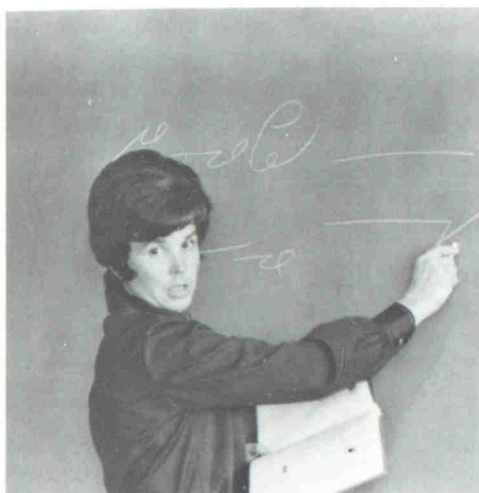

Mrs. Trigg

Mrs. Elsie Trigg was an enthusiastic teacher again this year instructing such games as warball, puntback, and square dancing. She taught just about every girl something in P.E. I, II, III, and IV. Mrs. Trigg once again helped the freshmen with Health and the juniors with First Aid. She was advisor for G.A.A.

Push those little discs!

Shorthand can be fun.

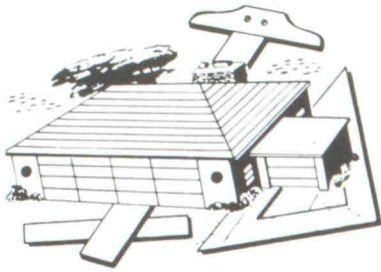

Mrs. Welch

Mrs. Dorothy Welch enthusiastically taught Typing I, II, and Shorthand I, II. Through these classes, many students found valuable training for future jobs. Mrs. Welch's patience and teaching ability rewarded even the most uncoordinated students.

Puzzled?

Mr. Wheeler

Mr. Greg Wheeler taught Industrial Arts I, II, III, and IV. Boys were taught in a newly-built classroom about woodworking, leatherwork, electricity, and mechanical drawing. The industrious boys also helped the Art class many times with shelves, wood, and work. This class proved very interesting, thanks to Mr. Wheeler.

Mrs. Belcher

Mrs. Lucille Belcher worked at keeping our unit libraries neat and orderly. She is the advisor of the Library Club which sponsored dances, bought new books, and enjoyed pizza parties. This year, like all other years, Mrs. Belcher went to many area libraries to obtain books and magazines for students which were not available in our library.

Mrs. Heller

Mrs. Rhonda Heller directed the chorus this year, which sponsored a sockhop and goody sales every Wednesday to raise money for a trip. They also had a Halloween party. This year Mrs. Heller set up an independent study course in music for students. The chorus held a Christmas Concert, Spring Concert and Musical.

Mr. Sampson

Mr. Roger Sampson was the band director this year. He formed a jazz band and held two concerts. The band marched at every home football game and at the University of Illinois. They also sold wastebaskets to cover expenses of a trip. Mr. Sampson helped each student build his musical abilities to the fullest. This showed when several band groups went to Contest and all received firsts.

This year the A.F.S.'s biggest money making project was the Halloween Party. They also had a Christmas and a Birthday party for Marit. The A.F.S. Weekend was for all of the local foreign exchange students, their American families, and the public. It consisted of a day at our school, a swimming party afterwards, and a pot-luck supper with small exhibits given by each student.

This year's foreign exchange student was Marit Rasmussen from Norway. Her American host family was the Dick Loney family. She took an active interest in her classes, especially her History classes, and was also very active in extracurricular activities.

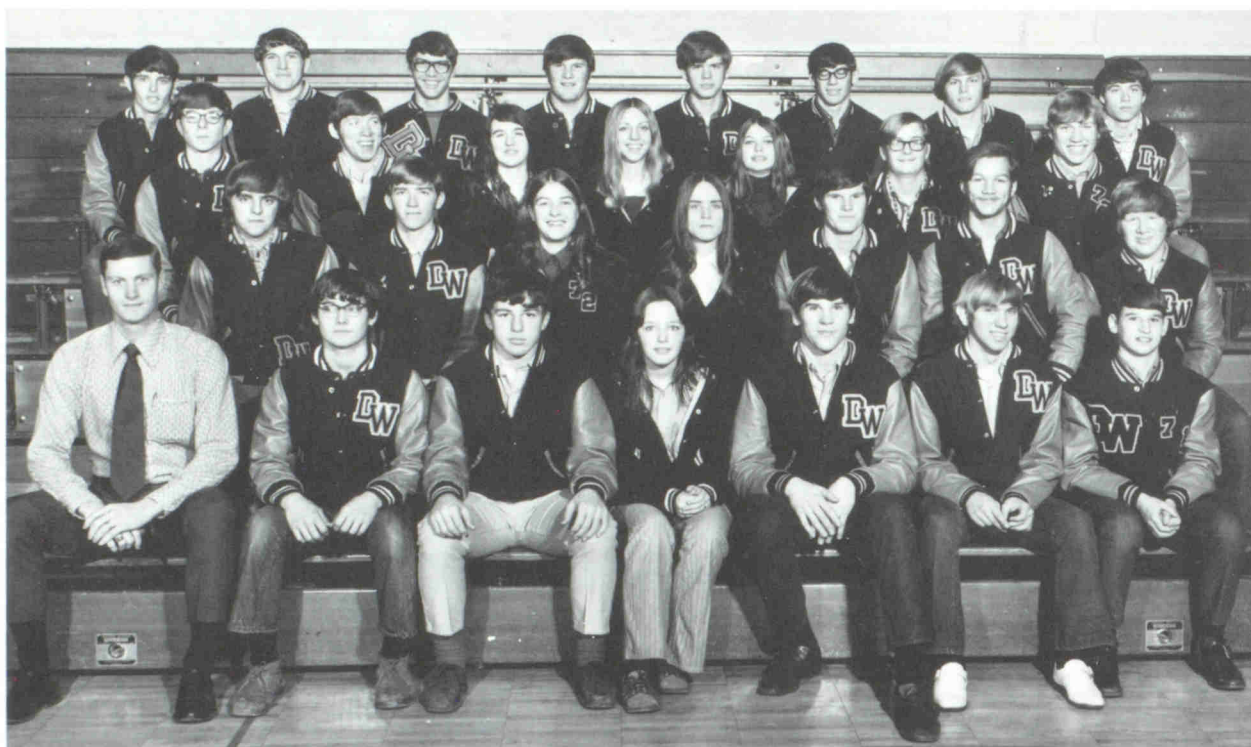

As you can see by this photograph, the D-W students really kept Marit busy.

Appreciation

Mrs. Seal, in the years you have been here, you have helped many people in various ways. You have boosted the spirit of the school by supporting the cheerleaders and aiding with the homecoming skits. Your biology and art classes were quite interesting and your art ability improved our musicals, plays, and proms.

Therefore, Mrs. Seal, we show you our appreciation with this page in the 1972 EAGLE.

No wheels on the line.

The Junior Class sponsored a wheelchair basketball game this year. Our faculty played the Black Knights from Champaign for one half. Then the Black Knights put on an expedition game to show everyone what the game was really like!

Class of '72

"The golden age is not in the past, but in the future; not in the origin of human experience but in its consummate flower not opening in Eden, but out from Gethsemane."

Chapin

Here we come!

Graduation '72

The senior class graduated on May 25, at 8:00 p.m. A musical selection was provided by the seniors entitled "One Tin Soldier" which was arranged by Mr. Gregg Kuetemeyer. Speeches were given by the Valedictorian Jan Hermann and Salutatorian Mark Fisher. The diplomas were presented to the class by Allison Perring President of the Board of Education.

These robes are too hot!

I finally made it!

On Sunday, May 28, 34 graduated seniors, Mrs. Leischner and Mr. and Mrs. Heavilin left for a fun filled week in Florida.

Some tried to sleep on the bus in some very unusual places. Andy kept some up with his music. He kept his music up all the way to Florida and back.

The first sightseeing stop was in Atlanta to see the Underground Atlanta. Some found it very boring until . . .

Some girls spied Ben Murphy from "Alais Smith and Jones". As all the girls made a mad dash for Ben to get a better look some of the boys had a good laugh about the whole thing.

Marineland proved to be work for some and a lot of fun for others. Jan was picked to be a fish feeder at the show.

Walt Disney World was a day of fun, sore feet and sunburn. Almost everyone went on the rides and to the different shows. Some saw Anita Bryant on Main Street U.S.A.

Some of the boys found some of their long lost relatives in the zoo.

The dream had come true and it all ended at 7:00 p.m. Sunday, June 4, when 34 seniors arrived at the school.

Busch was a combination brewery and zoo. Everyone felt that we should at least get a sample of their product.

Mr. Heavilin felt that some of us belonged in the zoo.
